Hi there! I'm Katie White, and I am jazzed to be teaching music this year! I have a B.A. in Music from Seattle Pacific University, and an M.A. in Music Education from Azusa Pacific University as well as a multi-state teaching certification/credential. I have taught music and directed children's choirs from preschool through high school over the years in Washington, California, Texas, and now Oklahoma. My husband, Justin, and I have been married 19 years, and have two boys, Alex (15 years) and Jameson (12 years). Some of my favorite activities are traveling with my family, playing piano, and watching my boys compete in jiu jitsu and play football. I'm looking forward to sharing the joy of music, and watching our students grow throughout the year!
